Our light will be lit on our Memorial Board. If you wish to memorialize your loved ones in a special way, consider purchasing a memorial plaque to be displayed in our Anne Jospey Sanctuary. Each year, on the anniversary of their death, it will be lit as a remembrance. Contact the Temple office at 248-967-4020 to make arrangements for this eternal memory of your loved one.
Shavuot “Worship”

Traditionally, the Book of Ruth, part of the section of our Bible known as Writings, is read during services on Shavuot. Ruth is a young Moabite woman who married an Israelite man. When her husband died, she followed her mother-in-law, Naomi, back to Israel and adopted the Jewish faith and people as her own. To feed herself and Naomi, she gleaned in the field of Boaz, a rich man. Boaz is taken with her, and eventually they marry. Among their descendants is the famed King David.

The theme of Ruth’s conversion to Judaism is central to this story. In Ruth 1:16–17, she states: “Entreat me not to leave you or to return from following after you. For wherever you go, I will go. Wherever you lodge, I will lodge. Your people shall be my people, and your God my God. Where you die, I will die, and there will I be buried. Thus and more may God do to me if anything but death parts me from you.” Ruth is often considered to be the archetype of all who “choose” or convert to Judaism—accepting the Torah, just as Jews accepted the Torah at Mt. Sinai—and this passage traditionally has been understood as her conversion statement.

Here at Temple Emanu-El, our Erev Shavuot Service includes, as do many Reform congregations, the ceremony of confirmation—for high school students who have continued their studies and Jewish involvement beyond b’nei mitzvah. Just as the Jewish people accepted the Torah on Shavuot, so do confirmands reaffirm their commitment to the covenant and adult Jewish life. In addition, this year our youngest students in religious school will be called to the bima to recite the Shema, to affirm for the first time in public their commitment to our covenant.

Erev Shavuot Sat. May 19, 6:30pm
Shavuot Morning (Yizkor) Sun. May 20, 10:30am

My favorite traditions for Jewish holidays involve food. Latkes Chanukah, matzah ball soup and Charoset on Passover, and Bubbe’s blintzes, which is traditional for Shavuot. Blintzes are sweet or savory, filled with jam or fruit, meat, potatoes, or in this case, cheese. Here is a casserole style recipe thanks to Amy Kritzer, a food developer and writer in Austin, TX.

Bubbe’s Blintzes Casserole

Cook Time: 1h | Makes 12 Servings

Ingredients:
- Batter:
  - 6 eggs
  - 1/2 cup melted butter
  - 1 1/2 cups sour cream
  - 1/2 cup orange juice
  - 1/2 cup sugar
  - 1 cup flour
  - 2 tsp baking powder

- Filling:
  - 8 oz softened cream cheese
  - 1 egg
  - 1 pint cottage cheese
  - 1 tbsp sugar
  - 1 tsp vanilla

Directions:
1. Preheat your oven to 350°F.
2. For the batter, mix wet ingredients together until combined.
3. Mix in sugar, flour and baking powder.
4. In a separate bowl, mix together filling ingredients.
5. Pour half of batter mixture into a greased 9 × 13-inch baking pan.
6. Top with all of the filling.
7. Pour the rest of the batter on top.
8. Bake for 45 minutes or until golden.
9. Top with sour cream.

Tell me you will join me at Erev Shavuot Service on May 19 and I will plan to have this at the Oneg.
As we conclude another year at Yachad, I am proud to think back on some of the events of the past year.

We have had celebrations and activities including a Purim carnival, an Escape from Egypt program and an Israel Day.

I am so proud of our children and cannot wait for another year to begin. Our last day of school will be Wednesday 9th May where we will end the year with a family event at Congregation Beth Shalom!

Enjoy some pictures of our wonderful New York trip with our Confirmation students.

Congratulate each one of these TLC/Yachad High School Students at our Erev Shavuot Service on Saturday, May 19, 6:30PM. They will participate in leading the service.
On the second night of Passover this year, Esther and I attended the Congregational Seder. Since we went to Esther’s sister’s home for the first night and my family seems to have all scattered for warmer climates in April, we found ourselves very much available for the second night. Maybe too available. So how comforting it was to be able to call the office and make a reservation, on the last day due, of course. We were greeted with a nice crowd of fifty, and we took our seats. We enjoyed the service led by Kelly and Rabbi Kalfus, but they couldn’t compete with six-year old Ari Salomon who stole the show with his reading of “The Four Questions.”

Dinner was beautifully served by the staff of Annabel’s and our Sisterhood provided the flowers, wine and juice. But what I really enjoyed the most was after the conclusion of the Seder, we said “bye-bye”, and went home to our nice clean kitchen. I’m looking forward to next year, and I hope we double the crowd.

I know it may be a bit early, but I’m looking forward to leading my first Congregational Meeting on Sunday morning, June 3. Please attend this year, we have many important issues, and you can all help me wade my way through it.

PRIME TIMERS
AT TEMPLE EMANU-EL

On Sunday, March 25 Prime Timers Goup toured Little Caesars Arena.

Our tour guide is telling us how the basketball court and ice rink coexist.

Some of our group of 16 stood in the Fan Experience area and images of various athletes and team mascots 'appeared' regularly.

“It was a big hit! It is a beautiful facility and we saw lots of behind-the-scenes stuff.” Richard Strausz, Prime Timers Coordinator.
The Matzah Factory came to Temple Emanu-El! Many of our children had the opportunity to experience making matzah and participating in the story of Moses leading the Jews out of Egypt. We had Pharaoh and Moses in our very own Katzman Hall. Fortunately Moses was able to reach Pharaoh on his cell phone to tell him to free the Jewish people. This interactive performance should be up for an Academy Award. The children were spellbound.

On Thursday evening, May 3rd, we hope everyone will join us for our Young Master’s Art Show and Gift Basket Fundraising Raffle. The exhibit is from 5:45 to 7:00 P.M. throughout the Temple. Our young Picasso’s will be there to greet you. The entire congregation is invited to join us. Raffle tickets will be available for purchase at the door.

We recently completed our 2018 State of Michigan license renewal inspection. The stringent requirements are for the benefit and safety of all our children. After a thorough investigation the licensing agent shared her conclusion: this is a very happy school. She loved that the children in all classrooms were engaged in so many activities. Visiting as many schools as she does, this is truly a compliment to our staff and school.

Our 3-year old classes will be visiting the Bowers School Farm where they will tour the farm and enjoy a hay wagon ride. This annual field trip is a favorite.

Looking at early childhood milestones, our annual Shalom party is Thursday, June 7th. The children are rehearsing new songs as well as favorite classics with music specialist Katrine Feygin.
