For an Adventure of a Lifetime, discover Israel as no Tourist can!

Bagels and coffee will be served.

Why would anyone on vacation rise at 6 am, work all day on an army base, endure Spartan accommodations and army food? Come and find out the answer as Carol Kent describes the Volunteers for Israel (VFI) Program, a non-profit, non-denominational organization, whose mission is to connect Americans to Israel through hands-on civilian volunteer work on IDF supply and logistics bases and to show Israel that she doesn’t stand alone. First Friday Family Shabbat Service
FEBRUARY 5TH, AT 6:45 PM
All the congregation will come together for a FAMILY FRIENDLY Shabbat service at 6:45PM in which 6th and 7th grade classes of our religious school will participate. Let’s celebrate together, get to know each other better and be inspired by a wonderful, musical Shabbat service.
Guest Cantor Lisa Segal will lead us in Shabbat Service on February 13 at 10:30AM

I invite all our community to join us for a very festive Saturday morning worship service when we will host and welcome Cantor Lisa Segal from Miami Beach. Cantor Segal is a personal friend and a superb Cantor with a ROCK twist! Her guitar playing and musical choices will be quite inspiring! I look forward to your presence at this very special Shabbat morning service.

Cantor Lisa Segal

Cantor Segal was born in Detroit, Michigan and moved with her family to St. Petersburg, Florida as a teen. Upon college graduation, she moved to Miami in 1981. She is married to Jimmy Segal. They have two children.

Cantor Segal is a graduate of the University of Florida with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Sociology and completed the Hebrew Union College/School of Sacred Music Cantorial Certification program. Lisa is an active member of the American Conference of Cantors (ACC) and served on its national board. She is also a member of the Cantors Assembly and Women Cantors Network.

Cantor Lisa Segal joined Temple Beth Sholom, in Miami Beach, in June of 2011. She oversees all musical and liturgical aspects of the synagogue as well as directing the B’nei Mitzvah program. She has years of experience as a Cantor and Pastoral Clergy member. It has been her greatest joy serving her congregants in their times of joy and sadness.

Cantor Segal’s experience as a counselor and song leader at URJ Camp Coleman contributed to her calling as a Cantor. Cantor Segal is a member of “The Garage Band,” a Miami area classic oldies rock n’ roll band which performs at benefits for local charities. An accomplished vocalist and guitarist, she frequently teaches, performs, composes, records and concertizes. She has been a prominent presence at URJ biennials and Cantor conventions.

I want to give a very special thank you to Sue Salinger and her crew for doing such an amazing Camp Style Shabbat with our Religious School students. Sue, who was education director here at Temple Emanu-El last year, followed her passion and took an administrative position with Hazon, an environmental organization that works to create healthier and more sustainable communities in both the Jewish and non-Jewish world.

The Tu B’Shevat theme of the evening was how trees wake up in the spring ready to grow. The students had fun making their own pizzas using healthy and natural ingredients. The best part was eating the one you made! After T’fillah and dinner, our activities included Israeli dancing and creating a plaque made from a slice of a tree. It included a picture of a food and a prayer that corresponds with the food. A highlight of the program was watching a demonstration on how maple trees are tapped to give maple syrup. The students were surprised how many times a tree has to be tapped to give such a small amount of syrup!

A great time was had by everyone. Thanks Sue!

MAZEL TOV! B’NAI MITZVAH

Charlotte Luczak - Feb 6
Charlotte Olivia Luczak will be called to the Torah on Saturday, February 6, 2016. Celebrating with Charlotte will be her parents Todd and Wendy Luczak as well as Grandmothers Aida Cutler and Margaret Luczak. Deceased grandfathers Philip Cutler and Donald Luczak will also be fondly remembered during the service. Charlotte is a seventh grader at Norup International School and enjoys dancing on the performance team at Dance City in Birmingham. Charlotte has a passion for helping others, especially children, and thrived in one of her meaningful mitzvah projects which was volunteering at the Friendship Circle. She has said the best feeling in the whole world is the feeling of friendship and gratitude she gets from her ‘Buddies’ at the Friendship Circle.

Blake Phillips - Feb 27
Blake Alexander Phillips will become a Bar Mitzvah on February 27, 2016. Blake is the son of Daniel Phillips and Lainie and Howard Ishbia. His siblings are Zoe Phillips and Lindsay, Nicole and Jared Ishbia. Blake’s proud grandparents, Donna and Will Phillips and Marlene and Harvey Goodman along with step grandparents, Renee and Earl Ishbia and Lois Ishbia will also be part of the simcha. Blake is a 7th grader at Norup International School. He loves playing and watching baseball, basketball and football. For his mitzvah project, Blake created a fundraising campaign in which he collected used sports equipment and raised money for needy families in Detroit’s Osborn neighborhood.
WHERE OUR EXPERIENCE PROVIDES YOUR CHILD WITH THE BEST EXPERIENCE

Our Chanukah celebration was enhanced with a special visit from Rabbi Klein. We loved the magic show and singalong with the rabbi and his banjo. Check out the photos.

Parent/Teacher Conferences were held in January, giving parents an opportunity to learn about their child’s world at school. For those children going on to kindergarten, conferences provide a social and academic assessment.

Our classes celebrated the holiday of Tu B’Shevat, the New Year of the Trees. This holiday marks the transition in the land of Israel from dormant winter to blooming spring. While here it is impossible to celebrate the holiday by actual planting of trees and flowers, we symbolize the holiday by observing the custom of eating Israeli foods such as figs, dates, carob chips and oranges.

Tactile play is an integral part of our curriculum. Enjoy the photos showing our children having fun with shaving cream and rice.
